

Sanandaj IFE, SIFE or Sanandaj International Film Event is a short film festival offering a filmmaker-friendly event with a special presentation. This event is organized by KurdMe VOD platform owned by Avang Negareh Media. We are always looking for great movies to show at our event and would love to check out your new film. The selected films will be screened for our audience at the event date and we will talk about them.

Event is held annually during May in city of Sanandaj, center of the Kurdish culture in Iran. The festival provides an opportunity for filmmakers to share new ideas from all around the world and also participate in several useful workshops and film reviews.

SIFE considers narrative, documentary and animated films, in short formats, and in multiple genres and from all countries.
