

LA GUARIMBA CALL FOR ENTRIES 2023

La Guarimba is a film festival and a cultural organisation situated in the southern Italian region of Calabria with the aim of bringing the cinema back to the people and the people back to the cinema.

We work with cinema and illustration using culture as a vehicle to promote our values of participatory democracy, integration and accessibility.

Guarimba, in venezuelan indigenous language, means “safe place”.

-You are only considered for the category you submit your film to. If you submit your film in the wrong category, please contact us to make the change.

-You can submit your film to more than one category.

4. SELECTION PROCESS

-Around 100 films will be selected to be screened at the festival and will be part of the following competitions: Fiction, Animation, Documentary, Music Videos and INSOMNIA – Experimental.

-In partnership with UNICEF ITALIA we will create La Grotta dei Piccoli Children's Animation program with more than 100 films selected in a competition program for children.

-Selected filmmakers will be contacted via mail.

-Those short films that have been selected cannot leave the contest and they have to provide:

- Clean Screener (without subtitles burned-in) in Apple ProRes 422 (HQ recommend), 1920 x 1080, 48 kHz 24-bit audio, .mov wrapper. Image: Please make sure that your film does not open/finish with a colour bar or extended blackness.
- Subtitles file (.srt) or dialogue list in English and Italian (The festival will help with the Italian subtitles if the participants provide an English or Spanish subtitles file in .srt or a dialogue list).

-The festival will not accept PenDrives and will not return any screener.

-Selected shorts are committed to using the selection laurel logo from La Guarimba International Film Festival.

-The festival will notify if your film is not selected using the platform where it was submitted. Participants will find a selected list on our website, in the Italian press, in social networks and we will send by email a newsletter with all the information.

-The festival will invite and provide hosting and food to all the directors in the official competition. The festival does not cover travel expenses.

5. THE JURY

6. MATERIAL AND RIGHTS

-All copies presented in this contest will not be returned and will be part of the contest archive and private video library. Directors may request the removal of the film in our video library and in our tour. Every year we organize La Guarimba On Tour showcasing the films in competition in other cities. La Guarimba Film Festival is committed to exclusively use these copies for cultural purposes and never in a commercial way.

NOTE: If you don't want that your film take part in our tour, just tell at the moment you are selected and we will just take it off the tour. No biggies.

7. REGULATIONS ACCEPTANCE

-By submitting, the participants agree to all regulations set out in these guidelines. Producers, distributors and other people or organizations submitting a film must ensure that any third parties connected to the production agree to its participation in the festival.
