

CINÉMATHÈQUE DE GRENOBLE

GRENOBLE'S 43rd OUTDOOR SHORT FILM FESTIVAL REGULATIONS 2020

The 43rd Outdoor Short Film Festival of Grenoble (France) will take place from June 30th to July 4th 2020. Organised by La Cinémathèque de Grenoble, the festival benefits from public sponsors, as the CNC, the Minister of Culture (DRAC), the Région Auvergne Rhône-Alpes, the Département de l'Isère and the City of Grenoble. Films competition, meetings, masterclasses are organised through the festival.

1 – PARTICIPATION TERMS

The selection is based only on French and International production (fiction, animation, documentary, experimental) completed after March 16th 2019.

The film should last less than 60 minutes.

Films previously submitted to the selection committee can't be submitted again, even a new version.

Advertising, corporate films, audiovisual production and music videos won't be considered.

Selected films will only be screened in DCP.

International films must be submitted in French or in original version with french subtitles.

The short films selected will be screened from two to five times during the Festival and additionally in school screenings.

2 - REGISTRATION

Film submission can be completed online on one of those websites :

- www.filmfestplatform.com
- www.shortfilmdepot.com

It's not necessary to apply on both platforms.

There won't be specific confirmation of registration, but its progress can be followed on the platforms. For any query about submission and registration, please send an email to contact@cinemathequedegrenoble.fr.

Films can be submitted for :

- General Competition;
- Competition for Young Audience

Any film listed to compete in the General Competition could eventually be selected in the Competition for Young Audience.

You can apply with a SD or HD version of your movie. However, selected films will only be screened in DCP, and the production commits to provide the DCP.

International films must be submitted in French or in original version with french subtitles.

DEADLINE FOR REGISTRATION

Deadline for registration online is set on Monday 2nd MARCH 2020.

3 – SELECTION

The selection committee will view every registered film.

The decisions of the selection committee are final, they will be available on the platforms of registration and on La Cinémathèque de Grenoble's website.

➤ www.cinemathequedegrenoble.fr

They'll be announced to the directors or producers of the selected movies, by email, from 2nd June 2020.

Directors and/or producers of the selected movies must provide shortly :

- Phone, address and email contact for both production and director;
- 3 pictures (HD) from the film;
- A portrait (HD) of the director(s) for the Festival's program and communication;
- 3 clips (30 seconds) for the festival's promotion and, potentially, the award ceremony.

4 – SELECTED FILMS

In the event of a selection, the producer and/or director will send the film in DCP format to the Festival's organizers at the latest by FRIDAY 5TH JUNE 2020 : Festival du film Court – Cinémathèque de Grenoble – 4 rue Hector Berlioz 38000 GRENOBLE – FRANCE.

The back and forth transportation of the films will be supported by the producer and/or director.

Reminder : Films will be screened in DCP only.

The DCP files should be named as : DCP/Film's title

The festival insures the copies of the selected films, in its own name, for the loss, theft or deterioration of said copies during transport, stocking, and projection. The reference price retained for the value of the copy is one of the copy's replacement.

For the copies submitted to a customs clearance, the Festival will not incur expenses. All the films have to be sent all expenses paid, otherwise they will be refused.

5- COMPETITION

The filmmakers selected in the General Competition are invited to Grenoble for the screenings of their film (the Festival supports a standard amount for travel – 100 € – , accommodations and one meal a day).

6 - PRESS & INTERNET

The selection in the Festival confers on the organisers permission to broadcast film's extracts on national or local television (only 10% of the length of the film and 3 minutes max.) and within the Festival and the Cinémathèque's communication.

7 – FESTIVAL SPINOFFS

The participation in the Festival also confers upon the organisers permission to screen freely the movie during non-commercial and cultural manifestations of La Cinémathèque de Grenoble, for the 12 months following the Festival.

8 – PRESERVATION OF FILMS

By this registration, La Cinémathèque de Grenoble is allowed to make, at its own expense, a digital copy of the selected films, for a repository for its collection, with the purpose of preservation.

9 – AWARDS (subject to subsequent changes)

- Grand Prix (funded by the City of Grenoble);
- Special Jury Prize (funded by the General Council of the state of Isère);
- Prize for support to the creation;
- UniFrance and Titrafilms Prize;
- Syndicat Français de la Critique de Cinéma Award;
- Audience award;
- Award for young audience film;
- Juliet Berto Cup, prize awarded by the selection committee.

Prices and additional grants may be awarded depending on the circumstances. The amount of allocations could be modified before the Festival, without notice.

By this registration, the directors, producers and broadcasters of the winning films agree to use in their advertising and film credits the Festival's award and its precise wording.

10 – EXCEPTIONS

La Cinémathèque's team will deal with cases not provided in this regulation and with granting any exception to the above provisions on specific and motivated request of the participants.

Participation in the Grenoble's Outdoor Short Film Festival implies the unconditional acceptance, of the present regulations' terms.
